Facebook users troll Shatta Wale over 'eczema' on his neck

Shatta Wale shared a photo of his new cut on facebook yesterday

What seemed a mere post to promote Shatta Wale's barber, turned out to be a massive troll on the 'Dancehall King' yesterday.

Shatta Wale posted a picture of his barber giving him a 'celebrity haircut'. He caption it: "Don't doubt the celebrity barber @iam_celebrity_barber (on instagram)."

While some expressed their fondness of the haircut, others rather settled on what looked like skin rashes or eczema at the back of his neck.

They advised him to treat the skin ailment because it does not befit his status.

After Shatta Wale got his new cut done, he posted another picture of an interview he had with Ylenia Citino, who works with the Italian Embassy.

In the said post, Shatta Wale appeared to have enjoyed his time with the Political Affairs liaison during that interview which took place on Monday.

In a rather complimentary gesture, Ylenia Citino also took to Instagram to describe the interview with Shatta Wale as “amazing”.

See some of the trolls of Shatta's eczema below:
